

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: 12/4/09

Protecting your Privacy

We respect your right to online privacy. This document outlines how we protect the information you provide by using the Worldwide website.

We reserve the right to modify our Privacy Policy at any time. In the event that we make a modification to our Privacy Policy, we will post the changes to this website and will change the "Updated" date at the top of this page to reflect the date of the modification. Your use of the website indicates your acceptance of the terms of this Privacy Policy including any updates posted on this page. You are solely responsible for visiting this website from time to time to check for any updates.

What information we collect and how we use it.

Worldwide will ask you to provide personal information in order to conduct transactions and allow you to take advantage of services we provide on our website. This information may include, but is not limited to, such items as your name, address, phone number, e-mail address, credit card number, as well as similar items. Worldwide provides passwords and other means of authentication to allow our customers to gain access to information through this site. We use your contact information to fulfill your request or respond to your inquiries.

We do not sell or share your personal information with anybody outside Worldwide.

Data storage, transfers and security.

We store your personal information in secure operating environments that are not available to the public. Your personal information is accessible only by you, selected company employees and trusted third party vendors.

It is your responsibility to protect your user ID and password. Worldwide will not be responsible for any lost, stolen or disclosed user IDs or passwords or any transactions conducted or data disclosed as a result of your failure to protect your user ID and/or password.

You may contact us if at any time you would like to see the personally identifiable information we hold about you, or to ask us to correct or update this information, or to ask us to delete it.

Unauthorized individual(s) may unlawfully intercept or access transmissions. You authorize us to disclose any information that we believe necessary to law enforcement, government officials and private entities.

Online Exhibitor Registration

We utilize SSL (Secure Socket Layer) technology to protect the submission of your personal information. Information collected via the Online Exhibitor Registration website is encrypted before transmission to our server and third party vendor Authorize.net. Worldwide stores the last four digits and credit card type only. Please visit Authorize.net for more information on their privacy policy.
